

14th and Chestnut Community Center
1403 Chestnut Street
Terre Haute, IN 47807
812-232-3126
14thandchestnut@abcs.com
Bill Felts, Executive Director

14th and Chestnut Community Center is an ecumenical ministry of the Terre Haute District of the United Methodist Church. The center's programs include after-school and summer programming for children and adolescents, the Grumbling Tummies Café', and a food pantry.

The center needs help this semester with several special events including: Harvest Happening (October 28), Thanksgiving Family Dinner (November 23), Christmas Celebration for Kids (December 16), and Christmas Family Dinner (December 20-23). In addition, volunteers are needed to collect, sort, and wrap Christmas presents and collect food for Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets.

The current needs of the 14th and Chestnut Community Center include:

- Homework Helpers
- Reading Coaches
- Basketball Coaches
- Drill Team Instructor
- Children's Choir Instruction
- Art Instructors
- Sport Instruction on a Wide Variety of Topics
- Instruction in Video Filming, Editing and Production
- Assistance with Early Elementary Children in the Rainbow Room
- Instrumental Lesson Instruction
- Assistance with Large Projects:
 - Thanksgiving Baskets
 - Christmas Baskets
 - Holiday Events
 - Barrels of Blessings Campaigns
- Instruction in Mechanics, Basic Electrical, and Construction Technology
- Mentoring for Academic and Career Achievement
- Boy and Girl Scout Volunteers
- Grumbling Tummies Café' Cooks and Servers for Nightly Meal
- General Volunteers committed to service one night per week and willing to submit to personal and criminal screenings
- Painters and general maintenance workers
- Assistance with Fundraisers